Little hope for snow by Santa's arrival tonight

"I'm dreaming of..." Dreams will have to do this year, as the National Weather Service says the chances for a white Christmas in the Quad-City area are less than 10 percent, but there is a chance for snow flurries this afternoon.

As a front passes later today, temperatures are expected to fall to around 30 degrees from a morning high near 40. Flurries are possible around mid day. Winds of 15 to 25 mph today are expected to diminish to 10 to 15 mph by tonight, as temperatures continue to drop to near 20 degrees, providing a brisk evening for last-minute holiday shoppers and for Santa's Christmas Eve journey.

CHRISTMAS DAY may not see snow on the ground, but the temperatures are expected to be cool enough to provide rosy cheeks for those who are outside for any period of time. Tomorrow is expected to be sunny with a high in the upper 30s and little or no precipitation.

Most stores and businesses will be closed Christmas Day and many of those which are open today and tomorrow are expected to close early, so shoppers are being advised to stock up early for holiday visitors.

An unseasonal warming trend will follow the holiday as temperatures rise into the 40s by Thursday and into the 50s by Friday.

DESPITE THE lack of snow, many Quad-Cityans should have a happy Christmas thanks to the generosity of their neighbors. Hundreds of food baskets and toys have been distributed to the less fortunate in the community by the Salvation Army and numerous other groups, service clubs, city employees and others.

In recent issues of the Press-Record—and in editions yet to come—we are proud to recognize the work of these groups of individuals, giving their time and money to make Christmas brighter for the holidays.

Christmas is, indeed, a time when Quad-Cityans show their best side to say, "Merry Christmas to all."

May finish long assessment probe in '85

It may seem like the investigation of county-level property assessment practices has been in progress forever, but the end may be in sight in 1985, when six defendants are to stand trial.

Soon after he took office in December 1980, Madison County State's Attorney Don Weber began checking on, and talking about, Supervisor of Assessments James Barton.

ALMOST AS OUTSPOKEN as his boss, Assistant State's Attorney Marshall "Zeke" Smith predicted after the Nov. 6, 1984, vote that Weber's election defeat would enable Barton to avoid prosecution. Weber is a Republican; Barton and new State's Attorney Richard Allen are Democrats.

But Allen declined to intervene, allowing Special Prosecutor Bruce Locher to continue the investigation. Madison County circuit judges, all of them Democrats, tried to thwart Locher but he said he could only be fired by the out-of-county judge who appointed him. Locher stayed on the job, and greatly-expanded assessment charges were issued Dec. 19.

ORIGINAL CHARGES against Barton were filed in 1982. It was contended in September 1984 that assessment reductions were "sold" to build a fund with which to defend against the 1982 allegations.

Now the fall 1984 indictment has (Continued on Page 8)

Brighter Christmas for steelmakers here

By BILL WINTER of the Press-Record

Christmas 1984 is a little brighter for hard-pressed steelmakers, including Granite City Steel. The entire U.S. domestic steel industry is expected to be profitable in 1985, the first such full year of profit since 1981.

The federal government said Thursday it has completed the initial phase of negotiations with foreign steel producers to improve import protection for U.S. mills.

THE REAGAN administration announced agreements in principle limiting seven nations to specific shares of the American market. They are Japan, South Korea, Mex-

Louis Pashoff, 75, succumbs

By VALERIE EVENEDEN of the Press-Record

Louis Nicholas Pashoff, 75, a widely-known benefactor to many individuals and area groups during his 45 years in the radio and television sales and service business here, died at 4:05 p.m. Friday, Dec. 21, 1984, at St. Anthony's Medical Center in St. Louis County.

He had been ill and in the hospital four days. (A-related story appears in today's obituary column).

AFFECTIONATELY KNOWN by many as the "Mayor of State Street" or just "Louie," Mr. Pashoff was born in Macedonia-Greece and moved to the United States in 1926, along with his mother and two brothers.

He resided in Granite City and the Mitchell area most of his life. For the last two decades, however, he made his home in the Sappington area of St. Louis County.

Mr. Pashoff became well known in Granite City during his years in the radio-television business.

"HE ENJOYED LIFE and said he was going to live and meet the 21st Century," Venice Township Supervisor Christ Pashoff said Sunday, quoting his brother.

When "Louie" retired from business Oct. 31, 1974, Louis Pashoff stressed, "I am not retiring from helping people or being active in the community."

From 1948 until quitting business, he owned and operated State Radio and Television Co., at 1936 State St., handling RCA and Whirlpool appliances, radios and televisions. Until the year he retired, he had the exclusive RCA dealership in the Quad-City area.

MR. PASHOFF started a radio service business in 1929 at 1330 Madison Ave. and followed with a store at 19th Street and Grand Avenue from 1932 until enlisting in the U.S. Army in 1941.

He served as a Signal Corps instructor until 1945 and, upon release from the military, he opened a store in the Ralph Building at Niedringhaus Avenue and Cleveland Boulevard.

Mr. Pashoff became known as the "Mayor of State Street" in the mid-1950s when challenged in a "rump" election for a popularity vote by Anthony Michel, a longtime friend, fellow businessman and co-worker in numerous civic projects.

Mr. Michel, former owner of Michel Jewelry and Gift Shop, 1842 State St., died Nov. 19, 1983.

Lights drive goal topped

Happy Christmas! The Tree of Lights drive today passed its $40,000 goal and soared to $48,000, with more gifts arriving, according to Irvin Slate Jr., campaign chairman, and Richard Suess, Salvation Army advisory board chairman.

Decoration of a city-provided Christmas tree is being completed today at the Standard service station. Feeding and Nameless roads, to proclaim the success of the drive.

Handicapped parking fine to be $50

After Jan. 1, persons parking in handicapped parking zones, either on the streets or in shopping center parking lots, are going to find a very expensive piece of paper on the windshield of their vehicles, a parking ticket carrying a fine of $50 to $100.

A spokesman for the Granite City Police Department is reminding all area residents that, in conjunction with the state law that goes into effect with the new year, fines for violating Granite City's handicapped parking zone ordinance increase drastically.

"AT $50 a whack, it shouldn't take people long to realize that handicapped parking zones should be used only for those who need them," the spokesman said.

Only cars displaying proper identification showing that they are used by handicapped persons will be allowed in the designated zones. All others will be ticketed, he said.

Madison may hire more policemen

By DONNA KIMBRO
of the Press-Record

A letter from the Madison Board of Police Commissioners requesting that Madison Chief of Police Don Bridick send two more men to police training session prompted a discussion among the Madison City Council members last week.

Alderman Don Garrett asked the mayor if another examination for prospective candidates for police officers will be offered to those interested, before two men are selected for training.

Mayor Mike Sasyk replied, "Yes, we will conduct another police examination and decide who will be eligible to undergo police training sessions that are scheduled to begin on March 10, 1985."

Garrett responded, "I want to know, mayor, does a person interested in taking the examination have to live in Madison?"

In response, the mayor said, "There is a city ordinance that states a person taking the test must be 21 to 35 years of age and a Madison resident for five years, and I have seen these on the examination papers."

Garrett then said, "I want to see a copy of this ordinance. You have said before that it exists, but I have never seen or read it. I think you should find a copy and let us read it."

At this point, the mayor instructed the city attorney to research this particular ordinance and bring a report to the next meeting.

Alderman Thomas Gordon announced that three candidates for the police department completed the training school and now are working for the department. "I understand that Chief Bridick is well satisfied with their performance."

"I think we should choose candidates according to how well they do on the examination," Gordon concluded.

The monthly report of the police department, submitted to the council by Chief Bridick, showed a 9 percent decrease in crime for the month of November 1984 as compared to November 1983.

A total of $1,826 was collected in fines for the same period of time. The report reflected nine residential burglaries and one garage burglary. There also were three robberies, four assault and batteries, six thefts and six auto thefts reported last month, according to the report.

Bids for a new police car were opened and read during the meeting and then referred to the Finance and Purchasing Committee for their recommendation.

Croft Chrysler bid $10,579 for a 1985 Dodge Diplomat and would allow $3,200 trade-in for two used police vehicles.

Novney Chevrolet submitted a bid of $11,561 for one, or $23,122 for two, 1985 automobiles and would allow $3,400 trade-in for two used vehicles.

Nine bids were received for snow removal equipment, accessories and garbage trucks with varying costs, depending on specifications set by the finance and purchasing committees and superintendent of streets. These also were referred to appropriate committees for a final recommendation.

Alderman Robert Grieve commented that the lids on the trash containers are bent and unusable and asked if the city plans to replace them. Superintendent of Street Robb Robbans answered that this is the time of the year when they check all containers and lids and replace those that are damaged.

Mayor Sasyk was granted approval to appoint Richard Tutka as temporary comptroller while Judy Donaldson, the present comptroller, is on a four-week vacation.

John Hamm, on a recommendation of the Zoning Board of Appeals, received permission to convert a single family dwelling at 1736 Fifth St. to a multiple dwelling.

The aldermen agreed to change the date of the next council meeting from Jan. 1 to Jan. 4, starting at 7:30 p.m.

ALLEGED CRIMINAL TRESPASS

Brent L. McKinney, 18, of 2300 Washington Ave., was charged with criminal trespass to property last week. McKinney allegedly was involved in a fight at Granite City High School. He was released on $52 cash bond.

Council retracts demolition order for the wrong home

Granite City aldermen corrected a resolution Tuesday night that could have cost someone his home.

On Sept. 25, the council passed a demolition resolution for 1649 Olive St. The property at that address had been inspected by a city inspector and found to be unsafe.

But when the legal description of the property was received from the assessor's office, it was apparent that the property described was not the same as the one that was inspected. It was, instead, a description of the home next door.

According to City Inspector Mike

DeRuntz, even though the building's address is listed as 1649, the building's legal description is listed as 1651. Part of the confusion over the description may have come because the dwelling is a duplex.

Even more confusing, the home next door, whose legal description is known at 1649, shows a mailing address of 1647.

DeRuntz said he was just glad that the mistake was caught before the demolition order went before a judge. He said the homeowner at 1647 Olive St. had been in no immediate danger of losing their home, since demolition orders generally take at least six months to process.

The new resolution passed by the city council contains the correct legal description of the property that was found to be unsafe, DeRuntz said.

Brooklyn man faces felony theft charge

Robert Ivory Scott, 38, of Brooklyn, Ill., was charged with retail theft (subsequent offense) in an informational document issued last week by the Madison County state's attorney's office.

He appeared in the Granite City court and a nolle prosequi was issued. He was transferred to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

Scott allegedly was seen placing two cartons of cigarettes in his jacket at the Shop-N-Save store, 3250 Nameoki Road, Dec. 17. The man then walked around the store, went back and allegedly got two more cartons, again putting them inside his jacket and then ran through a closed aisle from the store.

Chased by the manager and a security officer, Scott was caught near a service station at Nameoki and Johnson roads and held for police.

Venice Oks enterprise zone

By RACHEL NEWSOME
for the Press-Record

The Venice City Council, after a public hearing, ratified an Enterprise Zone resolution at Friday night's regularly-scheduled meeting. The resolution involves a four-year property tax abatement program in Granite City, Madison and Venice. For any new or developing industry or business in the area, the purpose of this proposal is to designate a geographical area designed to attract industry.

The assessed property evaluation already present remains, but if new business or industry develops, despite the size, the abatement will apply.

After answering questions of clarification, Aaron Ridenour,

Madison County Community Development coordinator, explained the intended goals and the management of the program.

"In Southwestern Madison County, the Enterprise Zone program is proposed as being the catalyst to forge a cooperative venture that focuses the attention of four units of local government on the need to stimulate economic development activities. This unique joint venture will seek to maximize its effectiveness by concentrating available resources to:

1. Market prime industrial property within the zone;
2. Market vacant and underutilized buildings in the zone;
3. Increase the number of jobs available in the zone; particularly for zone residents;
4. Assist businesses to locate or expand in the zone; and
5. Increase the tax base, over long-term, of local units of government.

"In order to accomplish these goals and objectives, it will be necessary to coordinate the programs and resources in the communities. The first step will be to create an administrative organization which will be the primary clearinghouse for development activities within the zone. It is proposed that this organization will be comprised of the mayors of Granite City, Madison and Venice and the County Board chairman," Ridenour said.

"This group will have the first rights of approval" for activities proposed within the zone. It also is proposed that an economic development subcommittee comprised of the economic development professionals having responsibility within the boundaries of the zone be established. The zone administrator will be the chairman of this group and will also be the liaison to the administrative organization," he added.

The boundaries of the proposal, at the present time, include approximately one-third of the city of Venice. Ridenour explained plans to include the remaining portions of Venice after a one-year probation period terminates.

This proposal, to be submitted to the state of Illinois, will not be effective, if approved, until July 1, 1985.

In conclusion, Mayor Tyrone Echols reminded everyone that the city of Venice will conduct a memorial service for Martin Luther King on Jan. 10.

"The Illinois State Police wish each and every one of you a safe and happy holiday season. Please drive to survive," Capt. Henry said.

Urges safe driving during the holidays

"With the holiday season upon us, it is a time to be joyful and merry, but for some it will be a time for tragedy and sorrow because of traffic fatalities. During November, 94 persons were killed in traffic accidents on Illinois highways. Two of these fatalities occurred in District 11," according to Captain Bobby L. Henry, Sr., commander of Illinois State Police District 11 at Collinsville. Both fatalities were in Madison County.

"Illinois is the only state in the nation that has reduced its fatalities for six consecutive years. During 1983, 1,527 persons were killed in traffic accidents. So for this year, with 10 days remaining, 1,496 persons already have lost their lives on Illinois highways.

YMCA gym and swim just $1 for holidays

During the Christmas holidays, the YMCA will have open gym and swim sessions for youth ages 6 to 17, from 9 a.m. to noon and from 2 to 5:30 p.m.

Between noon and 2 p.m., the YMCA is holding the building for the use of adults. Youths will be asked to noon to go home for lunch and return at 2 p.m.

The special holiday fees will be $1 per session per child.

More information is available from the YMCA at 876-7200.

Youths flee auto, charges are filed

In a court appearance last week, Jeffrey D. Gean, 18, of 2202 Arlington Drive, Arlington Heights, pleaded guilty to various charges resulting from an early morning incident in which he allegedly fled from an auto and was caught by an officer in a front yard in the 2500 block of West 20th Street.

An officer alleged seeing Gean driving an auto at West 20th and Rock Road and learned the driver may have a revoked license.

The vehicle traveled west on Rock Road and turned onto Denver Street, stopping at Denver and Nevada Avenue, with two occupants fleeing from the car in opposite directions. Gean was caught and was charged with attempting to elude a police officer, driving while his license was revoked, and disobeying a traffic control device and a traffic control signal.

He was released from custody, with sentencing to be set at a later date.

KNEE INJURED IN FALL

Police were notified Thursday that Frank Polach, 410 Kirkpatrick Homes, slipped on a street pothole at 204 Twelfth St. Dec. 16, suffering a knee injury that required surgery.

School board discusses plans for roller rink

Members of the Madison Board of Education discussed a plan Thursday night which could result in the conversion of the old Madison Junior High School's gymnasium into a family roller rink.

In a letter addressed to the board, Michael H. Major, owner of Sunrise Marketing and Development Co., proposed that his company lease the facility at Third Street and Alton Avenue for an initial term of six months at a rate of $250 per month.

Major's letter also said that his company would bear the difference in cost in the heating bill (from the average amount which is currently being paid) and would provide insurance coverage.

"It is my opinion this endeavor would provide a much needed supervised recreational facility for the youth of the city of Madison," the letter read.

Board President Paul Bargiel said although he was interested in the proposal, he would like to see more details on the program before the lease comes to a vote. Other board members concurred.

In other school board business, members gave permission for the high school's guidance department to use the school facility for an Operation Snowball program. The drug awareness program has been tentatively scheduled for March 23.

The board also approved the use of all district materials deemed necessary for the printed matter used in the program.

In other business, Board Member Billie Bosworth motioned that the board request the purchase of a high visibility vest and paddle for one of the crossing guards from the city. Mrs. Bosworth said she has received numerous complaints from parents that the crossing guard at Sixth Street is not visible enough.

Also at the meeting, a motion was approved to allow the high school band to participate in a special program to be held in March at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Sinde's car and an auto operated by Marvin V. Miller, 34, of Alton, which was traveling north on Nameoki Road, collided at that point.

Miller had slowed his car to turn right onto St. Clair Avenue, but was unable to stop in time when Sinite's vehicle turned in front of him, he reported.

Out-of-town pair booked in theft

Two people who allegedly gave police fictitious names at first, but later were booked under names believed to be accurate, pleaded innocent to several charges in a preliminary court appearance last week.

Isaac L. Ritnour, 36, of East St. Louis, entered an innocent plea to retail theft, possession of a hypodermic syringe and not having a valid driver's license.

The felony theft charge was authorized in an informational document issued through the Madison County state's attorney's office. Ritnour was transferred to the Madison County at Edwardsville at 6:30 p.m. Monday.

Renee Reason, 39, of St. Louis, who was arrested with Ritnour, was booked on charges of misdemeanor theft, possession of cannabis and possession of a hypodermic syringe.

In a court appearance at the same time, Mrs. Reason pleaded innocent and was released after posting a $302 cash bond.

The pair was in a U-Haul pickup truck with a Nebraska license plate which was stopped by police on Niedringhaus Avenue, just west of railroad tracks.

The vehicle was towed to the police headquarters and several items without store receipts allegedly were found in the truck, including packages of flashbulbs valued at $174.

Initially, police were called to Gasen Drugs in Nameoki Village Shopping Center, where a clerk noticed Ritnour adjusting a strap on his bib-overalls and a few seconds later alleged seeing him stuff packages of flashbulbs inside.

She confronted the man, advising him to replace the items, and he allegedly returned five or six packages to the counter.

The clerk told police she knew more packages were missing, as the display rack had just been filled, and she asked him to accompany her to the back of the store.

She said the man refused and he left the store and entered the truck. A description of the vehicle was broadcast and it was halted a few minutes later.

SANTA'S HELPERS. Coolidge Junior High School students carry boxes of nonperishable food items and toys collected by the students for distribution by the Salvation Army to needy families for Christmas. Among those participating in the collection were, from the left, Vickie Vangel, Brett Ware, Melissa Wasyak, Amy Aud, Lisbeth Lyons, Darrin Mayhall, Mike Parkinson and Chad Lane.

Coolidge students participate in School Spirit Week

The week of Dec. 10 through 14 was School Spirit Week at Coolidge Junior High School. To promote school spirit, the students participated in a variety of activities, including a pep rally, Sweatshirt Day, Color Day, Dress-up Day and a video-dance.

Mike Parkinson and Amy Aud were elected Mr. and Miss School Spirit at the school. Contestants for the event were nominated by the faculty. Votes were then cast by the student body by dropping pennies in to the jar belonging to the candidate of each student's choice.

It was decided that the money obtained by voting would be given to the Salvation Army Tree of Lights campaign, and $203.11 was raised through the contest.

Other contestants for Mr. and Miss School spirit were Darrin Mayhall, Lisbeth Lyons, Brett Ware, Melissa Wasyak, Chad Lane and Vickie Vangel.

The Coolidge students also worked to collect more than 400 items of nonperishable food items, which were given to the Salvation Army for the needy. Toys also were donated for distribution by the Salvation Army.

Price agrees his '85-'86 chairmanship will be last

By JIM WOODCOCK

U.S. Rep. Mel Price will easily be re-elected as chairman of the House Armed Services Committee when the 99th session of Congress begins Jan. 3, his top aide says.

Bill Hart said that despite the suggestion from some House members that Price relinquish the chairmanship, he has decided he wants the job for one more term.

NOMINATIONS will be made when the Congressional session begins.

Hart said Price has decided to give up his chairmanship of the Armed Services subcommittee on research and development.

Hart added that Price chose to resign in order to devote full attention to heading the full Armed Services committee.

Price plans to give up the Armed Services chairmanship at the end of the two-year term that begins in January, his aide said.

Hart said Price is entertaining the thought of running for Congress again in 1986, but is not ready to comment on the matter at this time. Price defeated Robert Gaffner on Nov. 6 to win his 21st term in Congress. He has served continuously since January 1985.

"I THINK Mr. Price wants to get this chairmanship business out of the way first," Hart said. "Mr. Price said, 'If I announce I'm retiring, they'll vote me out (as Armed Services committee), chairman and I'd be a lame duck.'"

Price will be 80 years old on Jan. 1, and some have said that his age prevents him from providing leadership as chairman. But Hart said Price has strong support in the House to offset any opposition.

Price has received fewer dissenting votes from his colleagues than any other House member who has run for election to a committee chairmanship since 1975, Price's first term as Armed Services chairman, Hart said.

HART EXPECTS support to be just as strong Jan. 3. He said Price has the backing of House Speaker Thomas "Tip" O'Neill and will be nominated by Rep. Dan Rostenkowski, the Chicago congressman who chairs the Ways and Means Committee.

Before Price can be nominated on the House floor, he must be elected by Armed Services Committee members and by the Democratic membership of Congress.

Hart said Price will face some party opposition, but it doesn't concern him.

"THE BASIS for arguments against him concerns his chairmanship style," Hart said. "He is less autocratic than (F.) Edward Hebert, the former chairman from Louisiana.

"In the old days, the committee chairman was supposed to bang his gavel, telling younger congressmen that they shouldn't be opening their mouths. Mr. Price lets all have their say, and that includes subcommittee members and Republicans. Some Democrats are against that style in that it isn't as partisan as it could be."

HART SAID Price also bucks the Democratic stance of less defense spending, and that rubs some House Democrats the wrong way.

"When it comes to defense matters, he is intentionally non-partisan," Hart said. "He will not take the view that he must disagree with a Republican president."

Hart said, "Age is a popular thing to bring up, and he's getting old. But putting things into perspective, Mr. Price would be voting the same way if he were 30 years old. And in terms of voting, he's there all the time."

Price, who lives in Virginia, but maintains an East St. Louis address will have the duty to recommend all spending in an annual $300 billion defense budget if he is re-elected as Armed Services Committee chairman.

Exemptions offered to eligible citizens

Chouteau Township Assessor Marion A. Sparks has announced that all senior citizens who will be 65 years old or older in 1985 and who live in the township are eligible to sign an application for a Certificate of Homestead Exemption if they own or are buying the home in which they reside.

Sparks explained that homeowners who have been receiving the homestead exemption must file forms each year with the assessor. The amount of the exemption has increased from $1,500 to $2,000. The forms should be turned in by Mar. 30, 1985.

To receive a partial exemption, the citizen must own or be buying a home, and must live there during the year of applying for the exemption. The exemption has increased from $3,000 to $3,500. Forms for that exemption also are available from the assessor's office.

Sparks noted that homeowners also may apply for a Homestead Improvement Exemption when improvements have been made to the property. The amount of the improvement is spread out over a four-year period.

Further information on these and other tax exemptions are available from Sparks' office, 697a N. Thorngate Drive in Mitchell, telephone, 931-1139.

Mr. Pashoff was among a small group of people who believed the Granite City was entitled to its own mental health clinic and he went to battle to secure its establishment here some years ago.

He also was one of the first to be contacted for help when the Granite City Crippled Children's Society was organized. Later, he was elected president.

HIS OFFICE WALLS were emblazoned with plaques and certificates of appreciation from Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children, Mary of Dimes, ROCA Young Men's Club and outstanding citizen citations from the United Way. next five years. This would be a sharp decrease from the 28.4 percent annual level of imports recorded from Jan. 1 through Oct. 31, 1984.

Robert Lighthizer, chief negotiator, said the seven countries will provide 10.13 percent, about one-third less than they have in recent months. Japan's share is to be 5.8 percent of America's market.

EUROPEAN STEEL is restricted to 5.4 percent under an existing agreement.

Quinn is likely to retain, or trim slightly, its current share of 3 percent of this country's steel market, but without a formal agreement.

U.S. and European talks are continuing on possible limits on steel pipe and tube products.

IN ADDITION, the administration hopes to restrict semi-finished steel imports to 1,700,000 tons a year.

The new semi-finished steel is retroactive to Oct. 1.

Research by Arthur Denzau, a Washington University economics professor, reported by the Center for the Study of Business, says steel import quotas may save some jobs in American mills but end other jobs in steel-using industries.

But the quotas were defended by Lighthizer, who stressed, "Defending ourselves against unfair trade isn't protectionism."

Dec. 31 deadline for Circuit Breaker forms

Persons who turned 65 during 1984 have only a few days left to take advantage of a new state law which could qualify them for Circuit Breaker benefits this year, according to J. Thomas Johnson, Illinois director of revenue.

The new law, signed in September by Governor James R. Thompson, provides prorated grants for applicants during the years they reach 65 years of age. Previously, applicants had to be 65 by Jan. 1 in order to receive a grant during that year.

"This means that more people are now eligible for these grants," Johnson said. "However," he added, "applicants for the 1985 claim year must be postmarked by Dec. 31, 1984."

The Senior Citizens and Disabled, Persons Property, Tax Relief Act, commonly called "Circuit Breaker," provides property tax relief grants of up to $700 and additional grants of $80 to qualified citizens.

To qualify for a grant an applicant must be an Illinois resident, be 65 years old and have a household income under $16,000. Applicants must be at least 16 years old and be totally disabled.

Applications and instructions are available from Department of Revenue and Department on Aging offices, as well as from the Lieutenant Governor's Senior Action Centers, senior citizens' centers, county clerks and many legislators' offices. Several area townships also have the forms.

The new law provides that persons turning 65 during the year can receive a partial grant based on the number of months they were 65 during the calendar year. For instance, a person with a July birthday, who therefore was 65 for half the year, could qualify for one-half the usual grant. A person with a December birthday could qualify for one-twelfth the usual grant.

Persons born in 1944, who applications were rejected before the new law was passed, need not reapply this year for a grant. Their original applications will automatically be reconsidered by the Revenue Department.

Lesche Club party at Miller home

Mrs. Mary Miller entertained the Lesche Club in her yuletide decorated home for their annual Christmas party. Mesdames Connie Strobelde, Mary Ann Cochran, Lois Holsinger and Marian Skinner hosted the party.

After the invocation given by Mrs. Marie Gordon, a salad luncheon was served to 15 members, two associate members, Mrs. Faith Holsinger and Mrs. Marge Pennell, and a guest, Mrs. Melanie Fathman, from the St. Louis Art Museum.

The tables were decorated with poinsettias plants and each place was marked with a seasonal favor. No regular business meeting was held, but a thank you note was read from Mrs. Ruth Ann Bartels.

Mrs. Strobelde introduced Mrs. Fathman, instructor at St. Louis University and St. Louis Art Museum. She told the story, with slides, of The Glad Tidings, starting with the Old Testament of the Bible about Adam and Even in the Garden of Eden and progressing to the New Testament about the Birth of Christ.

The exchange gifts under the tree were distributed to the members and guest by Mrs. Cochran, and Mesdames Marie Gordon, Jerry Jackson and Geneva Miller received poinsettias plants in recognition of their December birthdays.

President Bernice Mercer welcomed all to the social event hosted in the Granite City Township Hall. She then introduced guests, Mayor Paul Schuler and Director of the Housing Authority David Morgan and Mrs. Morgan.

Mrs. Anne Pare offered the invocation appropriate to the season. She also was in charge of the decorations and had prepared a candle in memory of the members who died this year.

A festive "cookie tree" was centered on the dessert table. This item was made 13 years ago by Mrs. Pare and her late husband.

The sequence of serving was noted in balloons on each table. Dinner was catered by Bill Burns Catereria.

After the dinner hour music for dancing was provided by The Alley Cats and prizes were awarded during intermission.

Mrs. Irwin entertains Opti-Mrs.

Mrs. Randall Irwin entertained the Noon-Day Opti-Mrs. Club at its annual Christmas luncheon in her home, festively decorated for the occasion. She was assisted by Mesdames Carl Rant, Elmer Branding and Harry Odum.

Upon arriving guests were greeted with a glass of punch served by Mrs. Branding.

After the invocation by Mrs. Rant, lunch was served at tables attractively decorated with red candles, miniature toy objects and candy reindeer at each place as favors.

Mrs. Victor Anderson, president, conducted the business session, Mrs. Richard Buenger led the Opti-Mrs. Creed and 23 members answered roll call.

Birthday recognition was given to Mesdames Buenger, Wilbert Engelke, Tony Michel, Odum and Norman Hall.

A Christmas card was signed by each member to be sent to Miss Conie Siebert, student nurse sponsored by the club, with a gift. An invitation was extended to Opti-Mrs. by Optimist to attend their Christmas party.

Mrs. Anderson then thanked the committee for the party and wished everyone "Happy Holidays."

Christmas games were played with prizes awarded to Mesdames Engelke, David Parrish, Charles Thurber, Michel and Lawrence McCaulley, and later Christmas exchange gifts were distributed as Mrs. Irwin read "The Night Before Christmas."

Others attending were Mesdames Dave Giese, Meri Jennings, David John, John Kirchoff, Leo Konzen, Douglas Little, Larry Melvin, Alfred Pape, Carl Roach, Fred Werner and Wallace Wyman.

Busy 1985 for historic site at Cahokia Mounds

The new year of 1985 will continue revitalization of the Cahokia Mounds Historic Site with development of a new $6 million interpretive center.

To celebrate the Historic Site, in cooperation with the Cahokia Mounds Museum Society, will present a number of programs for the whole family.

TO OPEN the new year, there will be a lecture series entitled "American Bottom Archaeology."

This series, consisting of five lectures, is designed to emphasize the importance of the American Bottom as an archaeological resource.

Cahokia Mounds Historic Site and other nearby sites will be featured in this program. The American Bottom lecture series is free and open to the public.

All programs will be held in the theater building behind the museum, and will begin at 1:30 p.m.

ARCHAEOLOGISTS divide the time span from the beginnings of human activity in the eastern United States through the historic era into several periods:

—Paleo (12,000-8000 BC) big-game hunting.

—Archaic (8000-1000 BC) small-game hunting, fishing and wild plant collecting.

—Woodland (1000 BC-1000 AD) beginnings of pottery and plant cultivation.

—Mississippian (800-1500 AD) intensive corn agriculture, large permanent villages and platform mounds (the largest of which is Monks Mound at Cahokia).

—And Historic (1500 AD-present) arrival of Europeans.

ON SUNDAY, Jan. 13, Dr. Steve Arlt and Dale McElrath will speak about the Paleo and Archaic periods.

The Woodland period will be presented by Tom Emerson, Tom Maher and Dr. Andrew Fortier on Feb. 10.

On March 3, Dr. John Kelly and Douglas Jackson will discuss the Emergent Mississippian.

And on Sunday, April 21, Bill Woods will open the discussion of the Mississippian period by examining a specialized Mississippian farmstead.

Dr. George Miller will lecture on "New Information on Mississippian Settlements and Mississippian Burials."

THIS SERIES will close Sunday, May 12, with the Oneota (1450-1500 AD) by Mark Mehrer and Historic by Dr. Margaret Brown.

The celebration will continue through 1985 into 1986 (when the opening of the new interpretive center is scheduled) with Indian technology demonstrations on Saturdays in the museum, seasonal nature hikes, craft classes, guided tours, a simulated dig for children, field school, Kids Day (May 19), Rediscover Cahokia (Aug. 10 and 11) and more events.

The site is at 7850 Collinsville Road, East St. Louis 62201, telephone 344-5268.

Agent Orange claim deadline is Jan. 2

The deadline for veterans who desire to join the Agent Orange Class Action Suit ends on Jan. 2, 1985. Veterans who served in Vietnam may complete and submit the Agent Orange Claim Form regardless of whether they have ever experienced ill effects from exposure.

There are two major reasons that Vietnam Veterans are encouraged to file. According to Bob Fowler, director of VOICES (Veterans Outreach Investment Counseling and Educational Services, Inc.), "The effects on individuals (both present and future) are not completely understood. Suspicions of possible genetic mutations and the Time Bomb Theory are cause for concern. (The Time Bomb Theory comes from studies that indicate Agent Orange toxins may lie dormant in the body, suspended by fatty tissues. Studies suggest it may be released during weight loss, usually brought on by a major illness, which can cause an individual to be subjected to both the illness and Agent Orange. Studies are incomplete with no concrete evidence on this theory.)

Secondly, it is important to be "on record" should an illness develop which can later be linked to phenoxy herbicide exposure, Fowler said.

Veterans who suspect exposure to Agent Orange have two avenues they should pursue. The Agent Orange Claim Form (part of the class action suit) and filing a claim with the Veterans' Administration. These are two totally separate approaches to two separate agencies. One step is not required before the other and neither will satisfy the requirement of the other. Veterans are encouraged to do both. There is no established deadline for applying to the V.A. However, the Veterans Administration will not pay any benefit for any period that is prior to the date of the veteran's initial claim.

"Even though the news media has widely publicized the Agent Orange issue and current filing procedures, many veterans have not responded," Fowler said. Veterans may obtain the necessary forms and addresses by contacting VOICES, Inc., Post Office Box 285, 116 Hillside Ave., Edwardsville, 62025, or calling 1-629-6220, extension 4554.

Metallic flakes continue to snow on cars, sidewalks

Residents in East Granite City say they thought it was snowing last week when the mysterious metallic flakes have fallen from the sky on past occasions reappeared, covering cars, sidewalks and lawns.

Joe Cathey of 2818 Lincoln Ave. and Lloyd Singleton of 2020 Lincoln Ave. complained that the flakes not only covered their belongings, but also got in their hair and on their clothes when they went outside to investigate. Cathey notified Granite City Alderman Casmer Skubish.

SKUBISH, who has kept a record of the fallout, told the Press-Record that there are no new developments in the investigation into the source of the particles. Skubish contends that the flakes have fallen from the sky on Jan. 2, July 25, July 26, Aug. 1 and more recently on Dec. 17.

"The particles resemble fine silt," Skubish said. "The Granite City Steel people call it kish. It's definitely fugitive emissions."

People complaining to Skubish about the particles are told to call the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency District Office in Collinsville, although Skubish charges that IEPA officials haven't been responsive to the complaints.

"We've talked to (the IEPA office in) Springfield, because we didn't get much of a response from Collinsville," he noted.

"I'VE GOTTEN so many calls on that (the fugitive emissions), even in August. And it's not only in East Granite proper," Skubish added. He says he has received complaints from the 2200 block of Benton Street and from the 2800 block of Edwards Street.

"Some people contend that it's getting in swimming pools on Madison Avenue. Anchorage had the fallout, and I collected samples in the event the air pollution control board has a hearing, which could be called by the EPA."

Meanwhile, Daniel Hines, director of public relations for Granite City Steel, agreed that there were no new developments in identifying the source of the fugitive emissions. He said that the IEPA has never pinpointed a source and, as far as he knows, Granite City Steel is not the source.

Hines added that Granite City Steel officials continue to take samples when there are complaints about fallout and conduct a careful monitoring of the plant daily. He said officials have not noticed any irregularities in the operations at the plant.

ATTEMPTS to reach Walter Franke, regional manager of Region III, Division of Air Pollution Control, were unsuccessful. But when an earlier incident of the emissions was reported, IEPA officials determined that the particles are primarily graphite.

The report also said the fallout samples contained "isotropic fragments of slag and/or fluxing products with crystalline inclusions."

It goes on to say that "the spherical shape indicates a high temperature melting operation, such as those associated with iron and steel production."

ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT of Health officials have determined that there probably aren't any serious health hazards connected with the graphite particles, unless a person is exposed to very large amounts for a very long period of time.

Biggest win: Warriors fell Leonard, Lancers

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — When the 1984-85 basketball season began for Granite City High exactly one month ago, Warrior Coach Don Deterding knew his team had the potential for a winning season. His returners had both size and a goodly amount of varsity experience.

On paper, the Warriors were the strongest they had been in years. Well, along comes the Mt. Vernon Thanksgiving Classic and with it a revelation that had Deterding scratching his head. The Warriors truly have the talent to be one of the best cage teams in the area, but, you see, they have this problem. They can't put together a complete game. Three quarters, yes, but not four.

IT HAPPENED against Carbondale. It happened against Madison, and it nearly happened against Belleville. West, Granite City dominates, but one bad quarter — usually in the second half — puts them in a hole they can't climb out of.

Quoting Deterding early on: "We lack the consistency to win." And, said the Warrior coach at one point: "We should be undefeated if it were not for the inconsistency."

Despite those periods of inconsistency, the Warriors' depthiness enabled them to play well enough to win. Four and a half weeks after their season began in Mt. Vernon they boasted a winning, 4-3 record.

AND LIKE a maturing boxer getting his ring sense with each passing bout, the Warriors continued their development — their learning process — and with it came the consistency.

Friday night, against Belleville East and its all-everything 7-foot Gary Leonard, the Warriors may have just crossed that threshold of Deterding continued. "That kid can shoot the ball can't he. Twenty points at the half."

INDEED Jeff Gray was hot. As hot as he'd been this season. He's scored more a game, but never like he did that first half. His aerial attack was undefensable, even for Leonard. All totaled, Gray was 11 of 16 attempts and at one point hit six straight buckets. Some of them coming as far as 20 feet out.

"You gotta hand it to the guy, he's one of the best around," Leonard said of Jeff Gray afterwards. "I couldn't believe how he was hitting that first half. And not just from one

But in the fourth quarter, without Jeff Gray, the Warriors matched Leonard and the rest of the Lancers point for point as each team tallied 18 in the final stanza.

"We were a little apprehensive that third quarter when they took Gilley away, but they came through. They really played like a team," Deterding said.

Indeed they did. The Warriors play consistent ball, but they gave notice to anyone scouting them as well. That message rang loud and ever so clear in the second half: Concentrate your defense on Jeff spot, but from everywhere.

"They can use this game as a stepping stone, or they can get big heads and slide backwards to mediocrity. It's up to them... I'm tickled to death to win this one, and I know they are too."

Don Deterding

"I'm just glad we were able to box him the second half or not telling how many points he would have had," Leonard said.

THE LANCERS put the clamps on Gray the second half by utilizing what amounts to both a zone and a man-to-man defense. Called the diamond and one, the Lancers marked Jeff Gray with a man, while still implementing the zone defense against the rest of the Warriors. For all intents and purposes it worked. The Warriors freebailer scored just two points the second half.

"They did, they had me covered like a blanket the second half. I don't think I was open once," Jeff Gray said. "I was trying to run out of it but had little success."

Gray and the rest of the Warriors will burn you. In this instance, Jeff Gray's younger brother, Joe, and Kurt Hylla and Scott Cant were the East antagonizers. Each, along with Jeff Gray, were in double figures.

This "balanced scoring effort" is like manna from heaven for Deterding. It's what he'd been hoping would happen when a team would concentrate its defense on stopping Jeff Gray.

"FOUR GUYS in double figures," Deterding said and then pausing to cherish the sound of the sentence. "No, I don't know if they'll be able to keep it up. They were dynamite tonight, but I don't know what they'll be like next week."

"They can use this game as a stepping stone or they can get big heads and slide backwards to mediocrity. It's up to them," Deterding said suddenly very serious.

"I'll tell you what, though. I'm just tickled to death to win this one, and I know they are too. This is, without question, our biggest win thus far."

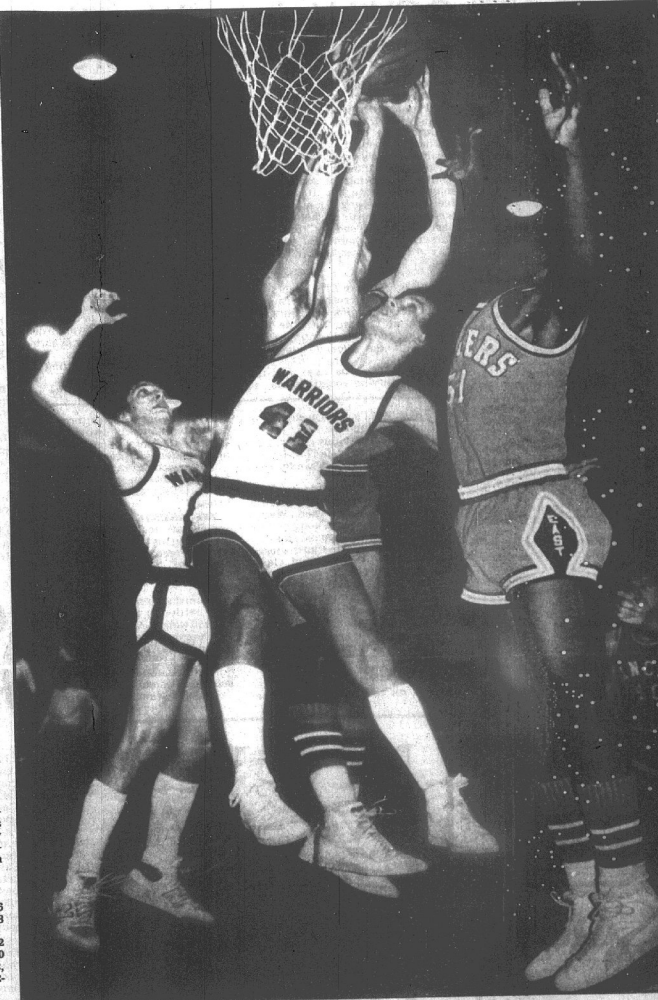

The Warriors are idle until Thursday when they take on Springfield Southeast in the first round of the Collinsville Holiday Basketball Tournament. The Warriors first game is at 7 p.m.

In the Jayvee game which preceded the varsity contest, the Lancers managed a double-overtime victory over the Warriors, 69-75. Granite City's Tim Hogan led all scorers with 24 points.

maturity and consistency. Alas, they played a "complete game."

Proving that consistency can beat anything, including a 7-footer who shoots 65 percent from the field and scores 29 points in the process, the Warriors were giant killers as they picked up their second Southwestern Conference victory of the season, beating the Lancers 68-56 Friday in Memorial Gymnasium. The win ran their overall record to 5-3 and their conference tally to 2-0.

AND DETERDING, well, he was a sight the likes Warrior fans haven't seen for years. Proud and glowing with victory, he was like a happy new father.

"Did you see that defense the first half. I don't think I've ever seen anyone play any better defense," Deterding said.

To know Deterding is to know that he takes extra pride in teaching his teams defense. His teams, this one included, always lead their conference in fewest points scored against.

"And Gilley (6-foot 2-inch senior guard Jeff Gray), was he hot,"

Very little success, indeed:

THE LANCERS took Jeff Gray, the Warriors' most lethal offensive weapon, away the second half. For Granite City, it was time to do or die. Time for them to show the consistency of the first half or the inconsistency which had plagued them earlier this season.

They chose the prior. And that's why Deterding was pacing and pushing the praise in his post-game interview. The Warriors had at last accomplished what he knew they could do all along: They played a complete, consistent game.

The Warriors stole the show from the beginning. Behind Jeff Gray they jumped to a 21-13 first-quarter lead. In the second quarter, the Warrior defense stole the limelight and numerous Lancers passes to outside the guests 24-0-1, 10-0-0. And, by halftime, the Warriors enjoyed a 17-point, 39-22 lead.

IN THE third quarter, the Warrior offense stalled initially while it waited until who was going to take up the scoring slack. East outscored the Warriors by five in that quarter 16 to 11.

Begin Play Wednesday Devils ready for Freeburg

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

FREEBURG — Despite an unblemished 7-0 record this season, Venice High School basketball coach Clinton Harris isn't taking exception to his team's third seed going into the Freeburg Holiday Basketball Tournament which begins Wednesday. As far as Harris is concerned, No. 3 is just fine.

"I really don't understand the seedings, but being third seed doesn't bother me or the players in the least," Harris said Friday. "In fact it may even be a good idea. It'll take a little of the pressure off."

CURRENTLY rated the No. 1 small school in both the Press-Record and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch basketball polls, the Red Devils have blistered their way to an undefeated season through the first month. Along the way they've knocked off everyone they've met, including some area and St. Louis area powerhouses.

The reigning Columbia-Freeburg Holiday Tournament champions, the Devils will meet unseeded Marissa in the first round on Wednesday at 1 p.m. Should the Devils remain undefeated after that contest, they'll play on Thursday, Dec. 27, at 5:30 p.m. They'll play the winner of the Red Bud-Carrollton matchup. Carrollton is the tournament's sixth seed. Red Bud is not seeded.

Devils
Red Devils

THE TOP seed in the 16-team affair is Westside High of Memphis, Tenn. McKinley High of St. Louis is the second seed. Just in front of the Red Devils.

Rounding out the seeds is Waterloo-Gibault at four, Cardinal Ritter of St. Louis at five, Carrollton at six, and Freeburg and New Athens at seventh and eighth respectively. Other teams in the tournament who are not seeded are Lebanon, Metro-East Lutheran, Marissa, Red Bud, Columbia, Duplo, Chester and St. Paul.

The seedings were determined by three factors, according to the memo from Freeburg High. And, none of the criteria took into consideration each team's record entering the tournament.

THE FIRST criteria is distance to travel to the tourney. Westside, coming from Memphis, had the inside in that category.

The second criteria is severity of schedule. A team which plays teams larger than itself will get the higher seed, but again, team records were not taken into consideration.

The third and final criteria for seeding according to the memo is gate receipts. The team which brings with it the most anticipated fans got the top seed.

The Red Devils, after having this weekend off, are all healthy going in to the tourney, says Harris. Darren Wise and Ed Ware, however, are hindered by minor ailments, but Harris expects them to be fully recovered by game time Wednesday.

WISE, the Devils' 6-foot 2-inch senior center, suffered a bruised nose during last week's game with St. Paul while Ware is suffering a early winter cold.

"We expect everyone to be up when we take to the court against Marissa," Harris said.

And what about McKinley, the No. 1 seed who Venice may possibly meet in the semi-finals?

"I'm not thinking about anybody but Marissa. We've got to take this one game at a time," Harris said.

"When you're rated tops in area basketball polls everyone's out to get you. The minute you start looking past someone they're the ones who'll beat you."

"We're going into this game like we can beat everyone, but we're also looking at it from the other way. Anybody can bump us off if we're not careful," Harris said.

The tournament runs through Saturday, Dec. 29, with the consolation championship slated for 2:30 p.m. and the championship game scheduled for 8:30 p.m.

Madison Wins 61-60 Cliffhanger: Trojans edge Wellston

By JOE THOMPSON
of the Press-Record

MADISON — To understand why the Madison High Trojans basketball team upended a school in St. Louis in Wellston High Friday night, 61-60, you have to understand a little about the history of Madison basketball. History sounds somewhat stuffy. Let's call it tradition.

Yeah, that's better. On the night when the Trojans of Madison toppled the defending Missouri Class 2A state champions, winning thanks to an Anthony Valentine steal in the final, frantic seconds, Madison coach Rodney Watson stood underneath the basket where his team scored the bucket that clinched the win.

THE first-year coach drank from a can of pop, and talked about what it is like to coach a group of players who expect to win — mostly because they generally do.

"Oh, yeah," said Watson. Oh yeah, he said, the Trojans expected to defeat Wellston. The victory upped the Trojans' record to 5-2 while Wellston, ranked in the top three among small schools in a recent St. Louis newspaper poll, fell to 5-3.

Tradition fairly reeked as Watson, in a Wall Street like suit and tie, surveyed the scene.

On the wall behind him were two banners representing the school's two state championships. The Trojans had a banner posted by the students. It read, "The Foreign Language Club Says the Trojans are Numero Uno."

Let's switch now to the game's final seconds, bypassing for a moment the shootout between Madison's 6-foot 4-inch Reggie Banks (21 points) and Wellston's 6-foot 5-inch Edgar Wilson (25 points), both highly touted and high scored players.

One interested observer in attendance was St. Louis University coach Rich Graver. LET'S pick up the action with nine seconds showing. The Trojans of Madison are leading the Trojans of Wellston, 59-58. Wellston, after breaking from a timeout, set up for an inbound pass from underneath the Madison basket.

It didn't take an Al McGuire to figure out the best bet would be to get the ball into the hands of Wilson. That was, in fact, Wellston's first option. The second was to kick the ball outside to one of their better shooting players, like Chris Robinson. Robinson might be able to get the ball inside to Wilson or possibly shoot.

THAT WAS the plan. Only look! The wrong player from Wellston is inbounding the ball, a first year player no less. Wellston coach Al Galloway, thinking quickly, decides against calling his team's last timeout.

The whistle is blown and Wilson breaks free toward the basket. Galloway sees it. So does Watson. But not the player inbounding the ball. Instead, he lofts the ball outside. It never arrives.

This is where Valentine, the Trojans' svelte guard who totaled eight points, enters the picture. He grabs the ball then, calling on his passing prowess ("I played quarterback my freshman year," he says) whips a Neal Lomax toss the length of the court to a teammate who streaks in for a basket making the score 61-58.

WITH three seconds left, Wellston has enough time for a token basket. "We were thinking they wanted to

Warriors 4-0 In SWC Matmen massacre Maroons

By CHARLIE SKAER

BELLEVILLE — For two weeks in a row, the Granite City Warriors have wrestled their way to Southwestern Conference blowouts.

The Warriors pounded Belleville West Friday with a 45-12 massacre. One week earlier, Granite City embarrassed East St. Louis Senior by a 61-6 score.

Friday's win over the Maroons upped Granite City's conference record to 4-0.

"It's been a long time since we scored this many against West," said Granite City coach Bill Schmitt, who before the meet had said he expected a tough battle. "We looked better, but not as crisp and sharp as we did last Saturday. I hope we snap out of it by tournament time."

THE WARRIORS had an impressive 45-12 lead after the first 10 weight classes. But Belleville West scored a couple of swift pins in the final two classes — 185 pounds and heavyweight — to avoid the shutout.

"We had things up until then," admitted Schmitt. "And we could have in the heavyweight if it weren't for the lateral drop. It wasn't even a lateral drop — well, it was, straight to his back."

Schmitt was referring to a maneuver that cost the match for heavyweight Chris Greer. Belleville West's Lyle DeWitt scored a quick pin at 1:50 after Greer's ill-fated move.

BELLEVILLE West's only "other" highlight of the night occurred minutes earlier when Sam Ridgeway came out roaring like a lion in the 185-pound class. Ridgeway pinned Granite City's Mike Lynch in an amazingly quick 1:19.

But the remainder of the night belonged strictly to Granite City. Darrin Singleton scored the Warriors' first pin at 1:33 in the 165-pound class. Gary Mann also wrestled to a pin at 3:29 in the 119-pound class, while Tom Sparks beat the clock and pinned West's Pat Ryan at 3:39 in the 138-pound class.

OTHER Granite City wrestlers had a tougher time. Mike Lewis appeared physically drained after using every ounce of strength for his

Warriors Undefeated GCHS Holiday Wrestling Tourney begins Thursday

GRANITE CITY — Thursday is just three days away and with its arrival come the holiday tournaments. You say it's Thursday and you've got a little time on your hands with Christmas behind you and New Years still a few days away.

Not used to the idle time, you're a sportsman looking for some excitement. Well, here it is. If you don't feel like travelling out of town to watch your favorite basketball team participate in one of those innumerable tournaments, you can stay at home, or at least in Granite City.

TAKE IN Granite City High's Annual Holiday Wrestling Tournament. Action begins on Thursday, Dec. 27, at 11 a.m. with the first qualifying round and continues at 6 p.m. with the second qualifying round.

On Friday, Dec. 28, at 11 a.m. the second qualifying round begins. At 5 p.m. West's Jim Decker, one of the Belleville standouts.

"That was probably your best kid," said Schmitt. "He (Lewis) lost a takedown at first and had to come back to win that one."

An even closer match score-wise was the battle between Granite City's Tracy Morrison and West's Doug Huwer. Morrison hung on to a 6-4 lead to win the 112-pound class.

Granite City's Darin Chute scored a 7-4 win in the 167-pound class, while Brett Carner, Mark Whitaker and Mike Fenoglio won their respective five classes by larger point spreads.

DESPITE the lopsided victory, Schmitt said things could still be better. "Some of the guys looked a little under the weather," he said. "I don't know if it's the flu bug or poor diet."

The Granite City Holiday Tournament is set to begin Dec. 27. The 1:30 p.m. semi-final round and first-round consolation bouts are slated. Following the championship semi-finals at 3 p.m. the consolation semi-finals will begin, setting up the championship round bouts at 6 p.m. The actual championship matches are slated for approximately 7:15 p.m.

NOW IN its 24th year, the tournament will consist of 16 of the best prep wrestling teams in the Midwest. Granite City is a 12-time winner of the tournament (GCHS five times, Granite City South six times and Granite City North once). The Riverview (Mo.) Rams are the reigning champions. The Rams ran away with the title last year posting a whopping 260-0 points, the most of any team ever in the tournament. Nearby Roxana was second with 197 points while the Warriors were seventh with 115 points.

Admission to the wrestling extravaganza is $2.

It should be a good one.

Warriors will be one of three undefeated teams in the two-day event. Hazelwood Central and Roxana are also undefeated in dual meets.

"Hazelwood Central has to be the No. 1 rated team in the area," said Schmitt. "Roxana is the other team to beat."

THE GRANITE City coach was somewhat less optimistic when predicting his own team's outcome.

"If we get enough place winners, we could get somewhere," said Schmitt. "But we aren't rated up there."

Schmitt said he expects to see the best battles in the 98, 105, 138, 145 and 155 weight classes.

"Everyone seems to have a couple of good kids," said Schmitt. "Some obviously have more than others."

Schmitt said to keep an eye out for another Missouri team.

"I don't want to sell Riverview Gardens short," said Schmitt. "They're the defending champions."

GCHS, Madison begin play in C'ville Tourney

By JIM SCHLUETER
for the Press-Record

COLLINSVILLE — The preparation that goes into starting up a 16-team holiday tournament is nearly completed, and all that remains is for the teams to begin play in the Collinsville Holiday Classic, sponsored by Schmuck's.

The tournament, which begins 9 a.m. Thursday at Fletcher Gym and runs through the championship final Saturday night at 8:30, marks a new chapter in the history of Kahok basketball. The strong tourney field shows CHS can attract top-flight teams even in the first year of its tournament.

But as Kahok Athletic Director Frank Pipit has said many times, the number of motels, restaurants and shops in the Collinsville area, plus the close proximity to St. Louis, gives CHS the resources to stage one of the most attractive Christmas tournaments in Illinois.

The tourney field is a mix of local and distant teams, schools with large fan followings and winning traditions. Here is a rundown of the eight first-round games set for Thursday:

Chicago Julian vs. Springfield Calvary, 9 a.m.

Springfield Calvary is a Class A team which has been building a solid small-school program, but Calvary will get a quick taste of Class AA basketball Chicago-style in playing Julian, the third-seeded team in the tournament. The Jaguars are picked to battle for the Red South Division championship of the Chicago Public League.

Julian, 3-1 before the Chicago teachers' strike, is led by 6-7 center

Steve Wade, who is averaging 18 points and 12 rebounds a game. Coach Don Williams said Wade is being recruited by Michigan State and number of other major schools.

The Julian backcourt belongs to Lance Irvin, a 6-0 sophomore, whom Williams said is a player to watch for the next three years.

Calvary, 22-6, last year, is led by Rodney Ransom, a 5-8 junior who is averaging 17 points and five assists a game, and Mark Taylor, a 6-1 senior, who is averaging 15 points and eight rebounds.

Madison vs. Springfield Griffin, 10:30 a.m.

Madison, coming off a 61-0 win over Wellston, Mo., is 5-2 under first-year coach Rodney Watson. Watson is replacing Larry Graham, who led the Trojans for the head coaching job at SIUE after leading the Trojans to a pair of Class A state championships.

Watson does have some talent to work with, namely 6-4 senior Reggie Banks and 5-11 guard Anthony Valentine.

Griffin has an inexperienced but talented squad which is led by 6-4 senior Mike Hartman. Hartman is averaging 14.5 points and eight rebounds a game. The backcourt is sparked by Tom Sestak, a 5-10 senior who is scoring 10.5 points a game and is dishing out four assists per contest.

The Cyclones finished 18-9 last year and took second at the Breese Mater Dei holiday tournament.

Decatur MacArthur vs. Triad, 1 p.m.

MacArthur's Generals will boast one of the top players in the tournament in Floyd Anderson, a 6-5 senior, who is the only letterman back from last year's 15-1 squad. Anderson averaged 15.6 points and 11 rebounds a game last season and is scoring at a 16.3-point clip this year.

Anderson combines a soft shooting touch with good strength and leaping ability. He will be joined up front by Lewis Jones, a 6-2 forward who is averaging 13.8 points a game.

Triad, 5-2 so far this year, has made up for a lack of height by using good movement and shooting on offense along with a sticky match-up zone defense. Coach Rich Mason's Knights are led by a pair of 6-2 seniors, forward Curt Wright and center Steve Martz. Both are averaging 18 points a game.

Quincy vs. Jerseyville, 2:30 p.m.

The Blue Devils, the tourney's second seed, are coming off a busy weekend. After shading Collinsville 68-67 at Kiel Auditorium in the 7-Up Shootout Thursday, the Devils lost at Galesburg Friday before beating DeSmet of St. Louis at Quincy Saturday.

Jeff Klingler, a 6-3 all-state forward, and Jack Kramer, an aggressive 6-2 guard, carry the bulk of the offensive burden for this small but opportunistic team. The Kahoks would like to get another crack at Quincy, now 6-2, in the tourney's championship game.

Jerseyville may be a bit over-matched in this first-round game, but the Panthers' David Munsterman, a 6-6 senior pivotman, could cause the Devils some problems.

Lincoln (Ill.) vs. Maine East, 4 p.m.

The top-seeded Ralliers are a young, aggressive squad that shoots well and plays the ball press well. Lincoln, the defending Big 12 Conference champion, knocked off the Kahoks in winning the Lincoln round-robin tournament to start off the season.

The Ralliers are led by 5-11 Justin Thies, the only senior on the squad, 6-1 sophomore forward Joe Cook and sophomore point guard Jason Jones. Donnie Acitis, a 6-3 center, also supplies scoring punch.

Maine East has a tendency for low-scoring games, especially a 31-25 win over Forest View and a 38-15 victory over Waukegan West this year. The Demons are led by Randy Busiel, a 6-7 forward, Steve Markovic, a 6-3 center, and Ivan Rhinehart, a 6-4 forward.

Granite City vs. Springfield Southeast, 7 p.m.

The Warriors are currently sharing the Southwestern Conference lead with CHS (both sport 2-0 league

Monday SPORTSAt Kentucky Wesleyan
Cougars get third in tourneyBy AL BARNES
for the Press-Record

Down through the years, Larry Graham has proved that he can win the big basketball game.

Now in his first year as head basketball coach of the southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Cougars, Graham has done it again. He and his Cougars collected their second tournament trophy over the past weekend by capturing third place honors in the annual Kentucky Wesleyan University game meet. The Cougars, in a thrilling overtime victory, defeated Hanover College of Indiana, 73-69, for consolation honors. And, as mentioned, their second third-place trophy of the current campaign.

Early on in November, they defeated Davis-Ekins College in the third-place game of the Bellarmine College tournament at Louisville, Ky.

The Cougars' victory over Hanover College, Saturday night, down at Owensboro, Ky., home of the meet winning Kentucky Wesleyan Panthers, was a cliff-hanger, alright. The regulation time result was a 63-63 tie, but the Cougars led by as many as eight points in the second half, points the Hanover College ace, Brian Clark, hit a 20-footer just before the buzzer to send the contest into overtime. It took a torrid shooting night by Dwight Newsome, a Waukegan, Ill., high school graduate but a transfer from Lake County Junior College, to turn the trick for SIUE. The strong 6-3 guard hit on an amazing 13-for-16 grad game scoring honors with 33 points, high for any Cougar during the current season.

Newsome's 33 points topped the 29 points racked up by Kenny Stanley in the Cougars' loss Friday night to Kentucky Wesleyan. Against Hanover, Stanley poured in 15 points and the Madison High former prep star, who just joined the Cougars, appears ready to help turn things around for Graham. Hanover College is now 6-4.

Two of Stanley's 15 points against Hanover came with just two seconds left on the clock and SIUE leading by just one point. He calmly made both ends of a one-and-one to seal the Cougars' second victory of the season. And, their second trophy of the young season.

SIUE's 89-71 loss to Kentucky Wesleyan, Friday was mainly traced to the game's free-throw statistics: Wesleyan made good 27 of 37 free throw efforts while the Cougars were going 16 of 25. However, the game really hinged on a mind-boggling 27 seconds ending the first half Friday.

With just 27 seconds left in the first half against Wesleyan, the Cougars led by three points. But, in that final 27 seconds, the Panthers regained the lead, 44-40, in an unbelievable point-making surge hard to believe.

Coach Graham and his Cougars will take a little time off for Christmas and when it is realized that SIUE's cagers have played probably the toughest schedule faced by any NCAA Division II school, is still 2-0. Half of those 11 games have been against Division I or ranked Division II schools.

Graham and gang will return to the cage ways the day after New Year's Day, Jan. 2, when they travel up to Macomb for a game with Western Illinois U.

The next night, Wednesday, the Cougars will take on the Miners of the University of Missouri-Rolla in a game tipping off at 8:30 p.m.

Chenevert drive winners

Public response and contributions to the Matthew Steven Chenevert Memorial Scholarship Fund have been so great that plans now are to name both a boy and a girl recipient of the scholarship each spring.

Initially, it was planned that the scholarship would benefit a single athlete who planned to attend college. Now, plans are to broaden the scope of the scholarship and to name both a boy and a girl. This far, the scholarship fund totals $1,775. The interest earned on that amount each year would be divided and given to each recipient.

As beneficial as the scholarship will be to Granite City High students and athletes, plans are to make it even bigger.

So, for the week remaining before Christmas, organizers planned a scholarship donation drive which will generate revenue for the scholarship and yield gifts to those who wish to donate. Persons donated whatever they wish.

Persons who contributed to the fund had the opportunity to receive one of many prizes.

Numbers of the winners were drawn last night, Dec. 23. There were numerous winners. The winning numbers and their prize follow:

— 0272800: A $25 certificate to National Food Store.

— 0272749: A dinner for two at Ravenell's Restaurant.

— 0272749: A triple-mirror Mahogany wall sconce.

— 0096050: Large ceramic pitcher and bowl.

There were also 24 free passes to the Star Theatre given as prizes.

Persons wishing to claim their prizes may do so by calling 451-4848 and presenting the winning ticket.

The scholarship drive raised about $250 for the scholarship.

In Girls' Basketball
Redwings roll over WarriorsBy PAULA WISE
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Warrior girls' basketball team "dropped their fourth game of the season Thursday night as they faced off with Southwestern Conference rival Alton. Led by All-State Cathy Snipes, the Redwings completely dominated the Warriors and came away with a 90-43 victory.

Snipes, who was named to the all-state team last season, proved she was worthy of another nomination in Thursday's game. The 5-foot 11-inch forward came away with 20 points as well as several blocked shots and steals on defense.

Joining Snipes was another outstanding performer, Sarah Redwings, Sarah Elliot. The Alton guard put in 24 points, several of which she scored as a result of steals on the press.

Paula O'Connor and Shirley James also scored in double figures for the Redwings with 14 and 10 points respectively.

"This is one of the best teams in the area," Granite City coach Gordon Gabreath said of the Alton squad after the game. "They've got one all-star and one potential all-star. We've played Alton and East St. Louis now and I think Alton beat East St. Louis. They're a good ball club."

While evaluating his own team's poor showing, Gabreath mentioned that he felt his team was improving but they had had little chance to show it since they had played two of the top teams in their last games.

"I think we've shown some improvement, but when you play East St. Louis and Alton back-to-back it doesn't look like it," said the Granite City coach.

"We worked our offense tonight, but the shots just didn't go in. We're still a little green," Gabreath admitted. "Inexperience causes them to get caught with the ball. They think as soon as they get the ball they have to get rid of it and usually it's to a different color shirt."

One aspect of the Warrior game which became apparent when looking at the statistics was a lack of aggressive play. While Alton was called for 14 fouls during the 32 minutes of play the Warriors were charged with only one.

"We didn't get much of a chance to be aggressive," explained the Granite City coach. "They (Alton) dominated us with the press. Our girls did pretty well at first but they got tired. We've got a long way to go. Hopefully we will come around."

The Warriors had two girls in double figures, Alicia Melton led the group with 11 points, while Debbie Brandt put in 10 for the Warriors.

"Something instinct?" said an onlooker proudly.

"Yeah, I guess you could call it instinct," said Valentine.

Valentine said he didn't see Wilson break clear. He jumped to the defense of the Wellston player who inbounded the ball.

"There was a lot of pressure. It was a tight game. He probably didn't have a chance to see Wilson open," said Valentine.

Pressure. "There was a LOT of pressure. Valentine wasn't the only Madison player who bucked the pressure to make a big play."

There were a number of big plays," said Watson.

Enter Anthony Newsome. The Trojan guard was his team's scoring threat, scoring a pair of driving baskets late in the fourth quarter. The final bucket was part of a three-point play. The five points Newsome scored states Madison to a 59-53 lead with just under two minutes left.

MADISON, which trailed only twice in the contest (2-1 and 12-11), led 27-19 at halftime and 45-41 after three quarters. A six-point burst to give the fourth quarter gave them their biggest advantage, 51-41.

Madison owed much of its success to Banks, whose 20 points came on an eight for 15 showing from the field. Banks got plenty of help from Jamal Bennett, who tossed in 12 points.

Banks more than held his own with Wilson.

Though listed at 6-5, Wilson appeared much larger. "He looked like 7-9 to me," said Watson. "A great player."

But Wilson could do no better than share the spotlight. Of Banks, who hounded Wilson much of the way, Watson noted, "He's (Banks) tough. He's a battler."

BANKS, in fact, came up with one of the game's biggest defensive plays, knocking a pass intended for Wilson out of bounds in the final nine seconds. This set up Wellston's ill-fated inbound play.

leading CHS both offensively and defensively, but Ellis has plenty of support.

Jeff Le Cuyer, a 6-6 senior, and John Barberis, a 6-4 junior, give the Kahoks a potent inside scoring attack. Jeff Smith warmed up his outside shooting at Kiel Auditorium, while La Roy Lerner and sixth man Keith Burns can score and also add great quickness to the Kahoks' ball press.

Crystal Lake South is coming off a 10-15 record. The Gators are led by Sean Feeley, a 6-4 senior front-liner, and Chris Kordys, a 6-0 senior guard.

Jacksonville vs. Chicago Collins, 10 p.m.

Fourth-seeded Jacksonville has a quick club that makes up for a lack of size with quickness, a good pressing defense and scoring balance.

The Crimson, coached by former Edwardsville Coach Mel

"They're a good team," said Gabreath. "We got beat by a good team."

"They're as good as anybody we've played," said Watson, who looked back on the season to date.

"There's been only one game we've played where (the difference) has been over 10 points. That makes for a lot of sleepless nights," he said.

Really, Watson should be getting more sleep by now. Odds are the Trojans will win the majority of those cliff-hangers to come. After all, said Valentine, "That's just tradition. We come out expecting to win."

Telecourse taught by seasoned instructor

When students take "The Business of Management," a Belleville Area College telecourse, this spring, they will have a seasoned instructor.

Don Pray, who will be the mentor for the course, has been teaching introductory business courses at BAC for years. He's excited about teaching the subject via TV. "I thought telecourses were a great idea when they started several years ago," Pray said. "I wanted to participate in some way and now I have the opportunity."

Pray said the class translates well to tape. "This will be the first time this course has been offered as a telecourse," he said. "The tapes are new and geared to business in the 1980s. The presenters come from a variety of businesses in the United States, something you could not get in a classroom, even though our area has excellent businessmen who come in and speak to classes."

Pray said students will not miss anything by taking a telecourse. "If the students do what the handbook and the study guide tell them to do, they will get as much out of it as they would if they took a class on campus," he said. "My experiences have been with the mature student, the working person or a person also taking care of the home. They have dead time in their day that is not compatible with the normal class times. These are self-motivated students who are going to school for their own benefit and not because someone else wants them to. These kinds of students should do very well."

"The Business of Management" will air at 3 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays on Channel 8. OTHER TELECOURSES planned for this spring are: "An Invitation to Fly: Basics for the Private Pilot," viewings of tapes will be arranged; "The Living Environment," 6:15 a.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays, Channel 9; "The New Literacy," 6:15 to 6:45 a.m. Wednesdays and Thursdays, Channel 9; and 3:30 to 4 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays, Channel 8; "America: The Second Century," 7 to 8 a.m. Saturdays, Channel 9; "Vietnam," 10 p.m. Mondays, Channel 8; "The Home Gardener," viewings of tapes will be arranged; "Understanding Human Behavior," 8 to 9 a.m. Saturdays, Channel 9; "Growing Years," 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. Sundays, Channel 9 and "Focus on Society," 9 to 10 a.m. Saturdays, Channel 9.

Students may register for telecourses by calling 1-235-2700, extension 200, or 931-0600. Evenings, they may call 1-235-7900. They may use VISA or MasterCard to pay tuition and fees.

Students may also register by visiting the telecourse office in room 1275 at the main campus, 2500 Carlyle Road, Belleville, day or the Registrar's Office at the main campus evenings.

TELECOURSES give students the opportunity to earn college credit without commuting to the campus every week. Telecourse students receive a study guide and assignments to complete in conjunction with programs shown on television. Few visits to campus are required.

If a student misses a program or wishes to review one, they may do so in the BAC main campus and Granite City Center libraries and at the Granite City Public Library.

Week End University schedule is set

More than 70 different credit courses will be offered on Saturdays and Sundays at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville during the winter quarter through the Week End University.

For the individual who wants to earn an academic degree, there are both undergraduate and graduate level courses in almost all the disciplines, ranging from accounting to sociology. A number of courses will be offered in the counselor education and business administration graduate programs.

FOR PEOPLE who would like to take a course or two, there are "brush-up" courses in reading comprehension, composition and mathematics, as well as other general subjects.

More than a dozen non-credit courses will also be offered. These courses include guitar for children, and cross country skiing.

Child care for those attending Week End University will be available for children between the ages of two-and-a-half to nine years of age, for a nominal fee.

TO PARTICIPATE in weekend classes, students must first be admitted to the university. Applications for admission are available through the Office of Admissions and Records or by contacting the Office of Continuing Education. Regular on-campus tuition and fees apply to Week End University classes. Missouri residents who enroll for up to nine academic hours will pay the same rate as Illinois residents. Out-of-state rates apply for those enrolling for more than nine hours.

Additional information concerning admission policies, applications and registration procedures may be obtained by contacting Phyllis Werner in the SIUE Office of Continuing Education by calling 1-692-3210. To register children for the Early Childhood Center, interested parents may call 1-692-2556.

Preventive maintenance talk set

The Center for Management Studies at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will offer a two-day seminar on the organization and management of a preventive maintenance program, Thursday and Friday, Jan. 17 and 18, in St. Louis.

Kenneth H. Little, principal consultant with K. H. Little, Inc., a consulting firm specializing in operations and maintenance management information systems, will be the instructor. He will emphasize techniques designed to establish, implement and sustain a maintenance program.

THE SEMINAR sessions will be from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each day at the Henry VIII Inn and Lodge, 4690 N. Lindbergh Blvd.

The seminar cost is tax-deductible and includes coffee breaks, luncheons and all meeting materials. A 10 percent discount is available to groups of three or more attending from the same organization. For more information, or to register, interested persons may call the Center for Management Studies at 1-692-2668.

SIUE gives award to Sen. Vadalabene

Senator Sam M. Vadalabene, Democrat-Edwardsville, has received the Stanley G. Bodine award from the Mylan Smeyers Chapter of the State University Annuitants Association at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The award was presented by Chapter President, James Bridwell, at ceremonies in the Oak Hackberry Room of the University Center. "If Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has attained greatness and I think it has," Vadalabene said, "the way was prepared by true pioneers. You are the foundation on which a major state institution is built."

"Because of the way our pension system operates, a major part of your compensation involved a required investment. This association plays a vital role in keeping the state's foot to the fire and its obligation to you."

"Thus it is that I proudly voted to override the veto of Senate Bill 1223. I accept this award with deep appreciation. I will keep fighting the good fight on behalf of all the annuitants in the State of Illinois."

BAC course teaches communication skills

Communicating more effectively with the employees, employer, customers and potential employees can save time and money. A new course at Belleville Area College can teach students to do just that.

The course, Communication in Management, will cover non-verbal communication, perception, development of listening skills, conflict management, interviewing and small-group communications.

The class will meet from 7 to 9:45 p.m. Tuesdays for 16 weeks beginning Tuesday, Jan. 22. Registration for the class is under way.

Beginning in January, classes will meet both during the days and evenings.

For more information, students may call the Basic Education Department at BAC, 1-235-2700, extension 323, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. weekdays, or call toll-free, 274-4675.

Courses to blame?

Driver-education courses may have actually increased the number of U.S. highway deaths. That's because the courses make it possible for more teenagers to start driving younger.

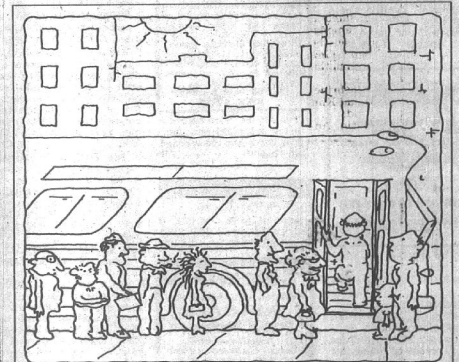

Transportation is available to BAC

Students shouldn't let transportation problems prevent them from getting to classes at Belleville Area College.

Bi-State Development Agency runs buses to BAC several times a day from locations throughout the BAC district. Students may call them to find the bus route that is most convenient.

Students who are more interested in carpooling or sharing a ride, can post their name and phone number on a bulletin board at BAC.

Like a good neighbor, State Farm is there

If an Illinois driver is convicted of Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol (DUI), his driving privileges will be revoked. Even if an individual with an Illinois driver's license received a DUI conviction in another state, this can still result in the loss of his driving privileges in this state. Most states exchange information in this type of case.

In a recent case in this office, a woman was arrested and charged with a DUI in Alabama. She was an Illinois resident, and she was merely visiting in Alabama. She was not aware that a conviction in another state would have any impact on her Illinois driving privileges, and therefore she pleaded guilty and paid a fine. Almost three months later, she received a notice from the Alabama Secretary of State that her driving privileges in that state had been revoked. Shortly thereafter, she also received a notice from the Illinois Secretary of State that her driving privileges in Illinois were revoked for one year.

If a person loses his Illinois driving privileges, he cannot even drive back and forth to work. Furthermore, a new law now provides that if a person is arrested and convicted on a charge of driving without a valid driver's license when it was previously revoked for driving under the influence, there is mandatory jail time for the offender. Therefore, an Illinois driver in this situation can hardly afford to take a chance and drive without a license.

The question remains how an individual with a revoked license can get his driving privileges reinstated. One thing to keep in mind is that once driving privileges are revoked based on a DUI conviction, the restoration of these privileges is not automatic. An administrative hearing will be held by the Secretary of State to determine whether his driver's license should be reinstated.

In a recent Illinois case, a man sought to have his driving privileges reinstated three years after he lost his license based on a DUI conviction. He introduced testimony at the hearing that he had not been intoxicated for more than two years. In addition, he showed that he had successfully completed an alcohol counseling program. The Secretary then denied the plaintiff's petition for reinstatement of driving privileges. This determination was later reversed by the Illinois Supreme Court, and the Secretary was ordered to issue the plaintiff a driver's license.

Dr. Breidenbach to retire in June '85

Plans by William E. Breidenbach to retire from the Granite City school district in June 1985 were approved Tuesday night by the Board of Education.

Breidenbach, who holds the degree of doctor of education, teaches mathematics and science at Coolidge Junior High School. He previously had scheduled his retirement for June 1986.

Leaves of absence due to personal illness were granted to Betty S. Roberts, a Parkway School middle intermediate teacher, for Dec. 6 to Jan. 23 and Joyce Albers, a Niedringhaus upper primary teacher, for Dec. 4 to June 7.

To replace Mrs. Albers at Niedringhaus for the remainder of the 1984-85 school year, the board rehired an honorably dismissed teacher, Gaye A. Young. Her last teaching position was a social studies post at Grigsby Junior High School.

Board approval was given for a settlement offer on a worker compensation injury claim after a discussion Tuesday night with attorney Irvin Slate Jr., who represents the district in such cases.

Defensive driving course scheduled

A defensive driving course will be conducted on Jan. 24 and 25 at the Madison County Farm Bureau auditorium, 900 Hillsboro Ave., Edwardsville.

Officials say the course will offer licensed motorists methods for improving their driving abilities through the practice of professional safe driving techniques. The Illinois General Assembly has mandated that Illinois insurance companies offer a discount to drivers age 55 and older who have clean driving records when they complete the course.

Instructors for the eight-hour classroom-type program are Country Companies insurance personnel who have been specially trained by the National Safety Council. The defensive driving course will include movies, visual aids, lecture and discussion methods.

Subjects to be discussed include the preventability of auto accidents, principles of defensive driving, the six situations of the two-car crash, the standard accident prevention formula, preventing run-off-road accidents, pedestrian and bicycle safety, the relation between alcohol and drugs and driving, backing up, fixed objects and grade crossing accidents, and driving on expressways.

Registration will be accepted from Country Companies policyholders and Farm Bureau members by calling the Farm Bureau office at 656-5191.

PLEADS IN CASE ALLEGING BATTERY

In a court appearance last week, James T. Pace, 36, of 4 Sunflower Court, Pontoon Beach, pleaded guilty to a charge of battery. He was fined $100 and was released.

Pace was arrested last week in the 2300 block of Nameoki Road after a former girlfriend, Tracy Murphee, alleged being struck about the face and head. She went to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment of cuts inside the mouth, reports said.

RANSACK BEDROOMS

Several items were taken in a burglary last week at the home of Anastasia Tatum in the 1100 block of 27th Street, where two bedrooms were ransacked by the intruder. An inventory was being taken to determine what property was missing.

CELEBRATING VICTORY, YMCA Board of Directors members smile after the announcement last week that the year's $20,000 sustaining drive went over its goal. Kneeling from the left are Jerry Swatling, YMCA executive director, and board members Joe Hassler, Bobby Weis and Gary Schneider. Standing

Pontoon Beach Board hires new attorney, building inspector

By SUSANNE INDELICATO
of the Press-Record

Two new Pontoon Beach village employees were appointed by the village president last week, while two village employees were terminated from their positions.

Lawyer Keith Jensen of Glen Carbon, a former assistant state's attorney, was named the new attorney for the village board, after former village attorney Robert Hennessey resigned this month. Hennessey quit following a dispute with board members concerning their demand that he attend all Village Board of Trustees meetings or send a representative.

JENSEN IS AN assistant state's attorney in St. Clair County after leaving the staff of former Madison County State's Attorney Don Weber in a dispute. Jensen's wife, Susan, also is an attorney. They have a daughter, Melissa, and a son, Christopher.

In making the appointment, Pontoon Beach Village President Glen Wilson told the board that Jensen has indicated he will be able to attend every board meeting. (Ironically, Jensen did not attend last week's meeting because, Wilson said, of a "miscommunication.")

Jensen will be paid $400 as a retainer fee to conduct routine village business, such as the drawing up of resolutions, amendments and ordinances. He will receive an additional $60 per hour if he is required to represent the village in court. Wilson said this agreement is basically similar to the agreement the village had with Hennessey.

FOLLOWING WILSON'S appointment, Jensen, village board members unanimously ratified the appointment.

In other action, the board unanimously approved the appointment of William T. Morgan as the village's new building inspector. He replaces Ben McMillan, whose position was terminated upon the appointment of Morgan.

Trustee Donald C. Rea initiated the action, telling the board he knew he had been concerned about the lack of activity of one of our appointed officials in the village. I've received complaints about him. I'm referring to the building inspector."

REA POINTED OUT that McMillan would not make his home telephone number available to the public and that his other employment may have prevented him from performing some of his inspection duties. "We've had people wait for weeks for an inspection that would take three minutes," Rea added. "He's not as effective as what we need in the village."

Wilson noted that McMillan has "made it public" that he is running for office in the April elections. McMillan has taken a petition out for a trustee position in the village.

WILSON SAID that the village code prohibits a person from running for office while a village employee.

Upon the appointment of Morgan, who lives in the Mitchell area, but operates Morgan's Supply, Inc., in Pontoon Beach, Wilson commented, "He says he has no problem with time because he's in his own business."

Trustee Loren Madison said he approves of Morgan, but he questioned whether Morgan should be appointed, since he lives outside the village. Wilson responded that the board could waive that requirement.

MADISON VOTED for the appointment, noting, "There is a problem finding someone who's qualified. The second problem is finding someone with the time to do this."

Meanwhile, McMillan told the Press-Record after the meeting, that he was not aware of the board's action and that he had never "been informed of the intent of the board."

He said that he also was not aware of the village code that prohibits a village employee from running for trustee and that he has not yet filed for the office, although he intends to.

McMILLAN, WHO had been the village building inspector since last May, declined comment on the board's action, but added that he would have "plenty of comment for the board" during next month's meetings.

In other personnel matters, the board terminated the employment of Jim Doolin as assistant building inspector. Rea submitted a motion that the board "terminate the man, not the position," so that the position could again be filled if necessary.

Board members indicated Doolin received no salary and was hired as a trainee under McMillan when McMillan had indicated that he may vacate the building inspector's post.

TRUSTEE BOB ADEL was the only trustee voting against the termination, stating that the action was unnecessary, since Doolin received no salary.

Illinois Bell pledges lower rates June 1

Monthly service charges by Illinois Bell will increase by $1 a month June 1, 1985, but long-distance rates will be lowered in a plan approved by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) yesterday.

Illinois Bell describes the package as "a plan that will keep Illinois telephone rates reasonably priced in the future and help stem the drain of Illinois dollars to substandard Residential and single-line business customers will pay a $1 monthly charge after June 1 for each service line connecting them to the company's switching centers. The fee will cover part of the cost of the customer's service line that now is subsidized by revenue from interstate long distance calls, a spokesman for Illinois Bell explained.

"Eventual savings in local rates for all customers, including savings for customers who don't make long distance calls, will more than offset the additional local charge," said Fred K. Konrad, Illinois Bell assistant vice president.

"The line charge will replace a subsidy system that encourages high-volume users—who pay more than their service costs—to bypass the telephone network with private telecommunications facilities," Konrad said. "Bypass of the local network increases the cost of service for our remaining customers," he added.

The $1 line charge also is designed to "end an unfair system that drains tens of millions of dollars each year from Illinois to subsidize callers in the higher-cost subunit states," Konrad said.

"Because Illinois has some of the lowest telecommunications costs in the country, interstate long distance callers in this state traditionally have paid rates higher than the actual cost of their service. This contribution subsidizes local rates in higher-cost states."

"By ending this subsidy system, the FCC line charge allows us to keep more of our own dollars at home," he added.

The FCC line charge for homes and single-line business customers will not increase revenue to Illinois Bell, but will replace revenue the company formerly received from a national division of revenue from interstate long distance calls. Illinois Bell's multiline business customers have paid a $3.45 monthly charge for each service line since May 25.

HEEL SPUR

This is a very common condition which may affect one or both heels. It is often mistaken for a "stone bruise" or attributed to arthritis. Persons with arthritis may develop heel spurs although a heel spur itself is not an arthritic condition. A heel spur is an actual bone-like projection on the bottom surface of the heel. They have a wide variety of sizes and shapes. However, the size of the spur has nothing to do with the amount of discomfort it produces. A very small spur may be excruciatingly painful whereas a large spur may cause no pain whatsoever.

At times a heel spur can become an almost disabling condition. The patient usually complains of pain on the first steps he takes in the morning. The pain disappears after a few steps only to return after prolonged weightbearing and stress. It feels like a nail sticking into the foot or a bruise localized to a definite area in the heel. The painful area is usually the bottom or the inner portion of the heel.

In treating heel spurs surgical intervention is rarely necessary. In most cases the condition will respond very well to several office treatments and medication. One popular misconception is that a spur can be dissolved with treatments, this is not possible. Once the heel is in pain free an appliance is often fitted to the patient's shoes to prevent painful episodes in the future.

Presented as a public service by Claude Hiles, D.P.M., specializing in diseases and surgery of the foot.

Former resident visits husband in Korea

A tour of one of the world's oldest civilizations and a chance to visit with her husband, now stationed on the Korean Peninsula, combined to make an ideal vacation for Mrs. Linda (Markuly) Szilvasy who took part in the Reunion in Korea program, sponsored by the Korea National Tourism Corporation.

Mrs. Szilvasy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pardo Markuly of Granite City, presently is visiting her parents here during the Christmas season.

AS A PARTICIPANT in the program, Mrs. Szilvasy recently joined her husband, Chaplain (Lt. Col.) John A. Szilvasy, for a five-day visit in the Republic of Korea (ROK). Lt. Col. Szilvasy of East Chicago, Ill., is group chaplain for the 901st Military Intelligence Group stationed at Camp Humphreys.

The visitors were welcomed by top United States Forces in Korea (USFK) officials, who briefed the group on the U.S. commitment to the ROK and the threat facing peace and security in the area.

Reunion in Korea was established in recognition of the centennial of diplomatic relations between the U.S. and the ROK.

IT DEMONSTRATES the Republic's appreciation of American contributions to security on the Korean Peninsula by enabling family members of U.S. Forces and Department of Defense civilian personnel to visit Korea at a substantial discount, officials said.

Although tour costs vary according to departure and return points, the entire trip, which includes roundtrip air fare, hotel accommodations, all meals and tours, is priced in most cases less than a standard one-way fare to Korea.

USFK representatives accompanied the Reunion group throughout the program, it was noted.

THE ITINERARY included tours of the United Nations Command Joint Security Area at Panmunjom and the ancient Changduk Palace in Seoul.

They also toured the Bulguksa Temple and the National Museum in Kyongju, the ancient capital of Korea's Shilla Dynasty.

Tour members had the opportunity to visit the Korean Folk Village in Suwon, a reproduction of a traditional Korean village, where villagers practice the ancient crafts and demonstrate the old ways of life.

IN CONTRAST, they also were given a tour of the massive Hyundai shipyard in Ulsan, where modern craftsmen work in heavy industry.

Throughout the visit Mrs. Szilvasy and the other participants stayed at first class hotels and were given the opportunity to dine on traditional Korean foods and be entertained by Korean musicians and dancers.

"We had a wonderful time and everything was first class," Mrs. Szilvasy said this week. While her husband is overseas, she is residing in El Paso, Tex., where she is planning to return on Dec. 29.

CHAPLAIN Szilvasy's assignment in Korea is for one year, his wife advised.

REUNION IN KOREA. Chaplain (Lt. Col.) and Mrs. John A. Szilvasy visit the Korean Folk Village in Suwon as part of a special program, established in recognition of the centennial of diplomatic relations between the United States and the Republic of Korea, which enables family members of U.S. Forces in Korea and Defense Department civilian personnel to visit Korea at a substantial discount. Mrs. Szilvasy is the former Linda Markuly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pardo Markuly of Granite City.

Four Injured at 21st and Madison

A collision involving three vehicles recently at Madison Avenue and 21st Street, resulted in four persons sustaining injuries.

According to police, an auto operated by Naomi V. Stoppkotte, 78, of 3304 Colgate Ave., entering Madison Avenue from 21st Street, allegedly struck the left front of a southbound car operated by A.C. Ware Jr., 26, of 1128 Douglas St., Venice.

The impact forced Ware's auto into the front end of a vehicle driven by Laura E. Vickers, 26, of 21 Edward Drive, which was stopped on 21st Street, facing east.

Mrs. Stoppkotte was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center. Ware and two passengers in his auto, Mildred Ware, 43, and Jerri Ann Ware, 19, both of the Douglas Avenue address, also were hurt, reports said.

RETURN WITH US TO...

DIMENSION X

THIS BRILLIANTLY PRODUCED SCIENCE-FICTION SERIES UTILIZED THE WRITING TALENTS OF PEOPLE SUCH AS RAY BRADBURY, GAC ASHCROFT, KURT COBURN, ERNEST KINYO AND ROBERT HEINLEIN.

RAY BRADBURY'S "MARS IS HEAVEN" BECAME ONE OF RADIO'S CLASSIC PERFORMANCES ON DIMENSION X. IT CHILDED LISTENERS IN RELATING HOW A GROUP OF SPACE TRAVELERS WERE DELUDED INTO THINKING THEY HAD ENTERED THE GREAT BEYOND. ACTUALLY THEY WERE IN GREAT PERSONAL DANGER FROM THEIR HOSTS, WHO WERE REALLY UGLY CREATURES DISGUISED AS FORTY EARTHINGS.

WELCOME, YOUR LATE RELATIVES HAVE BEEN LOOKING FORWARD TO SEEING YOU AGAIN.
